Where will the conference be held this year?

It is time for a change. This year the Collin County Bench/Bar Conference is going on the road to the beautiful South Shore Harbour Resort & Conference Center in League City, Texas (<http://sshr-px.rtrk.com>). The hotel offers a wonderful relaxing atmosphere and is close to NASA. The hotel also has an amazing spa and golf course. Space is limited on the golf course and at the spa. Therefore you may want to contact the hotel in advance to schedule your relaxation time.

How Much CLE will I receive?

CLE Pending.

Can I attend the conference only?

Yes, but we REALLY want you to stay at the hotel. If we do not fill up our room block the Foundation will have to pay the difference in the discounted price and the regular price. The cost of the room is built into the conference fee.

What is the difference between Single with Guest and Double Occupancy?

Single with guest means you are sharing the room with someone that is not also a conference attendee. Double Occupancy means you are sharing a room with another conference attendee.

What if I have further questions?

If you have a question regarding the conference that has not been answered, feel free to contact the Conference Chair, Charity Borserine, at 972-712-6700 or by e-mail at cborserine@friscolawfirm.com.

Babysitting?

This year the conference is out of town. We will offer babysitting if it is needed. Please let me know AS SOON AS POSSIBLE if you would be in need of babysitting at the conference.
